What some of you said about Stand & Deliver 09

"I feel like I've learned heaps and have been encouraged in my own bible reading too."

"Good opportunity to learn and sharpen preaching skills. Also meet people from other places."

"Today has been very stimulating and encouraging and God honouring"

"Loved the practical hands on focus. Loved the expressed aim to enable others to speak God's Word faithfully. This is especially important in rural communities to equip lay preachers to serve the rural churches."

"It's been a worthwhile day, the stuff on narrative especially useful. Also enjoyed the sermon & feedback."

"Great opportunity to learn, meet others, increase understanding."

'Stand & Deliver' is a ministry of
'Western Plains Christian Convention'

Stand & Deliver 2010

To be asked to stand up in front of your family and community and deliver a message from God's word is both an exciting opportunity and an awesome responsibility. The aim of 'Stand & Deliver' is to help you do that faithfully, confidently and clearly.

Preaching From The Old Testament

This year we are turning to the Old Testament with a focus on the book of Judges. We will see how the O.T. and the book of Judges points to Jesus and how you can help others see that.

We will get our heads around Judges by getting a big picture shape to the book. We should come away better equipped to handle Judges faithfully and clearly.

Preparation

Once again we want you to come prepared to make the most of the day. We will be developing a talk from Judges 3:12-30. We encourage you to use the 'Preaching Triangle' (enclosed) to help you prepare an outline for a talk on this passage. Whether you use it or not it is important that you come having developed an outline of how you would preach from the passage.

We will also be looking at the important link between preaching and the character of the preacher. We will hear a talk from Judges 3:12-30 and have the opportunity to get inside the head of the preacher.

It promises to be a full day of catching up, honing our skills, encouragement and fellowship in and around God's word.
